Philippines, Angola and Djibouti
These are the only three countries worldwide
With less than 12 years basic education
As recognized standard for students and professionals
By all nations
Come Juan, come one, come everyone
Support the K to 12 Program
Come Juan, come one, come everyone
Support the K to 12 Program
So we begin with the universal kindergarten Universal kindergarten started in 2011 for 5-year- old children
The child's dominant language is used as the language of learning
And a gradual language proficiency
English and Filipino is developed, until Grade III
Then education was enhanced for elementary Grades 1-6
Basic concepts and general concepts are first learned More complex and sophisticated version of the basic and general concepts are then rediscovered
In Junior High School, Grades 7-10
Come Juan, come everyone
Support the K to 12 Program
For Juan, for one, for you and for everyone.
K to 12 was enacted into law
In 2013 it was a tough effort though DepEd rejoiced for the milestone made
A transformation in education, for one great nation
Come Juan, come everyone
Support the K to 12 Program
For Juan, for one, for you and for everyone.
Every K to 12 graduate is prepared to be ready To traverse to the different paths of employment entrepreneur or further education
One will be equipped with different skills
Life and career skills, Information, media and technology Learning and innovation and effective communication

This year is our last mile of preparation
For the 2016 Senior High School implementation
Come Juan, come everyone
