Dear Dr Limbaco

In keeping with its designation as Center of Development (COD) in Literature, the English Department, College of Arts and Sciences of Xavier University, this City, has decided to hold a one-day seminar in Teaching Literature and the Humanities, with the theme "RESPONDING TO THE CHALLENGES OF THE NEW LITERATURE CURRICULUM."

This seminar, which is designed for secondary and tertiary English teachers in Cagayan de Oro City and municipalities of Misamis Oriental, is set for April 26, 2014, 8:30a.m. to 5 p.m.. at the Xavier University Little Theater. Competent speakers from our department will talk on the following topics: (1) Painting Analysis by Prof. Cathelyn C. Adajar, M.A. English; (2) Integrating Film in Literature by Prof. Roger F. Garcia, M.A. English; (3) Arts and Theater Management in Language & Literature Classroom by Prof. Hobart Savior, Director of XCCA (Xavier Center for Culture and the Arts); and (4) Teaching Creative Non-Fiction by Dr. Ma.Elena Paulma, PhD in Creative Writing.

We believe that this seminar will be of special interest and benefit to all teachers of Language and Literature and will surely boost their knowledge and expertise in the field. A registration fee of P400.00 is charged to cover the seminar kit and materials, lunch, morning and afternoon snacks and seminar certificates.

We are looking forward to your kind approval of this undertaking and to your much needed endorsement.

With every good wish, we remain

Very truly yours
