Dear Mr. Abella:

Greetings of Peace!

Thank you for your willingness to collaborate with us in promoting the protection and holistic development of our learners in Misamis Oriental. We are delighted to support and participate your proposed advocacy campaigns. This initiative perfectly aligns with our shared values and the Department of Education's thrust to uphold child rights and strengthen child protection mechanism across all learning spaces.

To move forward, we would be glad to coordinate with your team regarding the proposed schedule, target of participants, program flow, and any logistical concerns.

For details regarding this concern, please contact our Division Child Protection Office through CATHERINE ANNE B. ALCALA, 09177069417 to assist you and your team in organizing this meaningful and impactful activity.

We look forward to a fruitful partnership and to nurturing a generation of learners who are secure, confident, and empowered to reach their full potential. Thank you once again for your commitment to this noble cause.

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir:

Greetings of Peace and Prosperity!

The Provincial Social Welfare and Development Office of Misamis Oriental extends our heartfelt appreciation to your office for the continued support and assistance you have rendered during the conduct of the advocacy campaign on child-related laws last year.

Despite the gains brought about by such advocacy, still more work to be done for the welfare of our children. Hence, the office will be facilitating again the resumption of the intensified advocacy campaign to various high schools in Misamis Oriental.

In view thereof, we humbly request your office to encourage participating schools to get involved in the upcoming advocacy campaign. Enclosed is the schedule of the advocacy campaign of participating schools.

For queries and concerns, please feel free to contact Evnice Marce B. Saquilabon at 0970-449-0618. We are looking forward to your favorable response and support on this matter.

Respectfully yours,

JHUNLEYMAR D. ABELLA, RSW
