Dear Dr. Bayocot,

The Integrated Performing Arts Guild (IPAG) continues its road shows of its internationally-acclaimed SITA: The Ramayana Revisited and Tales from Mindanao.

MAY 05 2025
12:22 PM

The IPAG Ramayana has performed to dignitaries and large audiences in New Delhi, Mumbai, Kolkata, Bangkok, Singapore, and Ayodhya – birthplace and kingdom of Sri Rama – celebrating Dipotsava as the main feature, in Hinduism's major Festival of Lights. Besides its international road shows, the production has performed on national tours enthralling similarly large audiences. The production has become an iconic piece well-recognized in nations where the Ramayana epic originated.

Recently, it represented the Philippines among the ASEAN and India in celebrating the 72nd Anniversary of Thailand's King in Bangkok, its 2nd appearance in a country where the Ramayana is heritage.

IPAG has had tremendous successes with Tales here and abroad. Tales has performed in over 100 cities worldwide, in Europe, Asia, and North America. Tens and thousands of audiences in major venues in the country have enjoyed Tales that is Philippine Theatre's most-traveled road show today. Because of this contribution, important national and international bodies have recognized IPAG's significance in Philippine performing arts.

These productions will certainly benefit your efforts to educate your community. Using indigenous-based dance to narrate stories underscores the universality of human concerns among our diverse peoples. These project the positive values of harmonizing our communities, which are the repositories of our rich cultures.

IPAG now offers Sita or Tales for schools where invaluable lessons in the Humanities, Literature, Art Appreciation, and inter-disciplines may be learned. Our road shows start in July 2025 to April 2026 when we plan to support the production with minimal admission fees.

The proceeds of the shows will go to the participating schools for projects they wish to embark on.

Additionally, IPAG offers a free one-session lecture on Arts Appreciation to your teachers, artists, and staff members (at least 30-40 participants) in each hosted school facilitated by the undersigned on separate dates before or after the performances.

May we, therefore, request your approval through a Memorandum Order that covers Region X to allow your office to invite and produce these productions to schools? Please allow us to discuss with you regarding this matter at your convenient time.

With your approval, interested parties can contact Mr. ARLEM M. ABANES, our Liaison, through his cellphone number (0917 136 2275) or through our IPAG communication lines.

Thank you for the opportunities you provide your community.

Yours truly,

STEVEN P.C. FERNANDEZ, DFA
