Dear Dr. Oplenaria,

The Integrated Performing Arts Guild (IPAG) continues its road shows of its internationally-acclaimed Tales from Mindanao.

IPAG has had tremendous successes with Tales from Mindanao here and abroad. Tales has performed in over 100 cities worldwide, in Europe, Asia, and North America. Tens and thousands of audiences in major venues in the country have enjoyed Tales that is Philippine Theatre's most-traveled road show today. Because of this contribution, important national and international bodies have recognized IPAG's significance in Philippine performing arts.

These productions will certainly benefit your efforts to educate your community. Using indigenous-based dance to narrate stories underscores the universal ity of human concerns among our diverse peoples. These project the positive values of harmonizing our communities, which are the repositories of our rich cultures.

IPAG now offers Tales for schools where invaluable lessons in the Humanities, Literature, Art Appreciation, and inter-disciplines may be learned. Our road shows start in August 2025 to February 2026 when we plan to support the production with minimal admission fees of P180.00 per student.

For the meantime these are the conformed schedules:

1. MOGHS – November 15, 2025 at 10:00 AM, 1;30 PM, 3:30 PM
2. _____
3. _____

The proceeds of the shows will go to the participating cities, municipalities, and schools for projects they wish to embark on.

Additionally, IPAG offers a free one-session lecture on Arts Appreciation to your teachers, artists, and staff members (at least 30-50 participants) in each hosting cities, municipalities, and schools. The lecture will be facilitated by the undersigned on separate dates before or after the performances.

Please allow us to discuss this proposal with you at your convenient time.

With your approval, interested parties can contact Mr. ARLEM M. ABANES, Head of External Affairs and Linkages, through his cellphone number (0917 136 2275), and Ms. CORAZON C. VILLORENTE, Managing Coordinator (09354228031), or through our IPAG communication lines.

Thank you for the opportunities you provide your community.

Yours truly,
