SUBJECT : Confirmation of Participation in the 12th Regional Congress 'Search for SEAMEO Young Scientists'

DATE : 6 January 2022

This is with reference to the official communication from the SEAMEO RECSAM regarding the Confirmation of Participation in the 12th Regional Congress 'Search for SEAMEO Young Scientists.'

The 12th Regional Congress SSYS aims to develop young scientists who are competent in handling community problems for sustainable development. It encourages youths to fully utilize their potential of being inquisitive and creative when dealing with challenges in real life. Specifically, its main targets include (a) generating strong interest in science and mathematics learning, (b) increasing awareness about the relationship between science, mathematics, technology, and engineering, and (c) fostering camaraderie and networking among these youths through science and mathematics congresses, exhibitions, and competitions. Hence, the 12th Regional Congress SSYS seeks to provide opportunities for youths to optimize their vast potentials in conceptualizing scientific and mathematical ideas through intellectual teamwork into more tangible research projects and innovative products which will benefit the environment, society, and economy.

SEAMEO RECSAM will hold the 12th Regional Congress Search for SEAMEO Young Scientists (SSYS) from 7 to 10 March 2022 via online with the theme 'Empowering Innovative Young Minds for Sustainable Future'.
